

PROJECT CODE 11

A Tailoring Workshop in Tanzania

Cottolengo
Missions
Projects

At Kisarawe in Tanzania, the Community of Cottolengo Sisters, with an illumined trust in Divine Providence have started a tailoring and dressmaking workshop for young ladies in order to give them a possibility for a dignified life, to express themselves in the art of sewing and to offer a concrete help to their families.

The workshop helps the girls in economic difficulty to find job opportunities. Most of them, in fact, having dropped out of school early, have families they cannot sustain economically.

In the tailoring workshop there is intention to include 15 women, freely (most of them cannot pay the required monthly fee), guided by an instructor, an important part of the skills learning process.

The course aims at giving them skills to start their own small dressmaking workshops.

If you wish to help these young women to “re-stitch” their dream and their future, indicate code 11 in your bank transaction for the donations.

At Kisarawe in Tanzania, the Community of Cottolengo Sisters, with an illumined trust in Divine Providence have started, thanks to Luisa Monti Onlus Association’s precious contribution, a tailoring and dressmaking workshop for young ladies.
